1 Sec. 15. (a) An alternate payee is responsible for maintaining a
 2 current residence address on file with the public employee
 3 retirement fund that is making payments to the alternate payee
 4 under an Indiana QDRO. A public employee retirement fund does

31 (b) The public employee retirement fund, its trustees, its 32 officers, and its employees are not liable to an alternate payee or 33 any other person for the excess amounts.

34 Sec. 17. (a) If more than one (1) Indiana QDRO is issued under 35 section 11 of this chapter to a public employee retirement fund for 36 a member's account, the public employee retirement fund shall 37 honor all the Indiana QDROs to the extent possible.

38 (b) When the total amount payable to alternate payees under all
 39 Indiana QDROs in effect for a member exceeds the actual amount

QDROs were received by the public employee retirement fund until the benefit is exhausted; and

(2) shall not pay the Indiana QDROs pro rata.

(c) When a retirement benefit is exhausted under the circumstances described in subsection (b) and the amounts payable under an Indiana QDRO cannot be paid, the excess amount remains unpaid. The public employee retirement fund, its trustees, its officers, and its employees are not liable to the alternate payees or any other person for the excess amount.

(b) The public employee retirement fund shall promptly notify the member and the alternate payee by first class mail of the date the fund received the order modifying an Indiana QDRO.

(c) An order modifying an Indiana QDRO that does not:

(1) increase the amount of a benefit; or

(2) add a benefit;

payable to an alternate payee does not affect the priority established by section 17(b) of this chapter.

(d) An order modifying an Indiana QDRO that:

(1) increases the amount of a benefit; or

(2) adds a benefit;

payable to an alternate payee must be satisfied based on the priority established by section 17(b) of this chapter using the date the public employee retirement fund receives the order modifying the Indiana QDRO.

(e) The public employee retirement fund, its trustees, its officers, and its employees are not liable to a member, a regular payee, or any other person for any amount of a retirement benefit or member refund that is paid in good faith to an alternate payee under an order modifying an Indiana QDRO.

(1) a subpoena from a party to an action for dissolution of marriage under IC 31-15-2-2 that may include:

(b) The statement issued by a public employee retirement fund under subsection (a) must include at least the following information concerning the member based on the data on file with the fund on the date the subpoena or request is received by the fund:

- (1) The member's accumulated contributions.

(c) The public employee retirement fund may not be required to furnish an actuarial opinion as to the present value of the member's benefits or other interests as a part of the statement required by subsection (a).

Sec. 20. Notwithstanding section 12(b) of this chapter, when a member or beneficiary is required to apply to a public employee retirement fund for payment of a benefit, an alternate payee who is entitled to all of the benefit under an Indiana QDRO may apply for the benefit, if all other qualifications and requirements for the receipt of the benefit have been met.

Sec. 21. (a) Notwithstanding section 12(b) of this chapter, while an Indiana QDRO concerning a member's retirement benefit is in effect, the member may not elect a form of payment or take any other action that would have the effect of diminishing the amount of the payment to which an alternate payee is entitled, unless:

- (1) the alternate payee consents in writing to the election or action; and
- (2) the consent is filed with:
 - (A) the court that issued the Indiana QDRO; and
 - (B) the public employee retirement fund that is paying the Indiana QDRO.

(b) If the member attempts to make an election or take an action prohibited by subsection (a), the public employee retirement fund shall reject the election or action and advise the member of the need to obtain the alternate payee's consent as provided in subsection (a).

(c) If a public employee retirement fund discovers that it has mistakenly allowed an election or action prohibited by subsection (a), the public employee retirement fund shall disallow the election or action and recalculate the benefit affected by the disallowed election or action.

(d) If a public employee retirement fund determines that an

o

amount paid to a regular payee should have been paid to an alternate payee, the public employee retirement fund shall make a reasonable attempt under the circumstances to recover the amounts paid by mistake as provided in section 22 of this chapter.

Sec. 22. (a) If a public employee retirement fund in good faith overpays a member, regular payee, or alternate payee in connection with administering an Indiana QDRO, the public employee retirement fund shall make a reasonable attempt under the circumstances to:

(1) recover the overpayment as provided in this section; and

(2) pay the recovered amount to the person who was underpaid.

(b) The public employee retirement fund may recover the overpayment by deducting the amount in installments over time from future benefit payments. The amount of the installments shall be determined in the same manner as the public employee retirement fund determines installments when recovering overpayments not related to an Indiana QDRO.

(c) In addition to the remedy described in subsection (b), the public employee retirement fund may use any other remedy available to the public employee retirement fund at law or equity that is reasonable under the circumstances to recover the overpayment.

(d) The public employee retirement fund, its trustees, its officers, and its employees are not liable to the member, regular payee, alternate payee, or any other person for amounts described in subsection (a), regardless of whether the public employee retirement fund is able to recover the overpayment.

Sec. 23. A public employee retirement fund may adopt any rules or procedures that it determines are necessary to implement this chapter.

Sec. 24. (a) An Indiana QDRO is a qualified domestic relations order as described in Section 414(p)(11) of the Internal Revenue Code but is not a qualified domestic relations order issued under Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code may not be used as a guide to the interpretation of this chapter.

The loss resulting from the member's criminal taking of ~~his~~ the member's employer's property must be proven by a felony or misdemeanor conviction.
